

50 Teachers From County Schools Visit Us On B. I. E. Day

Approximately 800 teachers from the Hamilton County School system visited business and industry on the semi-annual B.I.E. Day observance on November 16. Du Pont was host to 50 teachers for the day.

The teachers convened at Central High School for the morning session, at which time Plant Manager E. M. Cooper, Jr., introduced the speaker for the day, Dr. George Benson, President of Harding College, Searcy, Ark.

The Du Pont guests arrived at the Plant in time for lunch at 12:00 o'clock. They toured the Plant, listened to talks concerning the production of nylon and engaged in a question and answer period.

Those present were: from Bess T. Shepherd School; Mrs. L. R. Schmitt, Mrs. Edith Cofer, Mrs. Agnes Morgan Hayes, Mrs. Emma L. O'Conner and Mrs. Paralee Short. Teachers from Ooltewah High School were Miss Evelyn Cash, Mr. Roy J. Chastain, Mrs. John Fletcher, Mr. Ray Keylon and Miss Idela Moon.

Spring Creek School was represented by Miss Claire Fletcher and Mrs. Harriet S. Harris. From White Oak the teachers were Miss Mary E. Parker, Miss Myrtle Jones and Miss Sarah Turner. Mrs. Kathryn M. Taylor was the representative from Signal Mountain.

Mrs. Geraldine B. Ringley was the teacher from Gann's Middle Valley and from the John A. Patten School there were Mrs. Mary Ruth Evans, Mrs. Vera H. Fryar and Mrs. Hazel Tatum.

Mrs. Evelyn C. Hawk came from Harrison and Mrs. Martha W. Haynes from Nathan Bachman. Teachers from Central High School were Miss Ellen Rice, Mr. A. B. Robertson and Miss Pauline Shearer. From East Brainerd, Mrs. Odena Wright was the visitor and from Eastdale there were Miss Christine Damron, Mrs. Sarah Collins, Mr. Dan C. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. David P. Knisley.

Mr. Samuel D. Melton and Mrs. Mary McCamish were the teachers representing Jersey King's Point. From Anna B. Lacey School the visitors were Mrs. Frances C. Cole and Mrs. Maude C. Ward. Soddy Elementary representatives were Mrs. Isabel Wright and Mr. T. J. Bond.

From nearby Hixson High School came Mr. Robert A. McCabe, Miss Alice E. Evans and Mrs. Paul Groce. The visitors from East Ridge Elementary were Miss Ruth N. Meeks, Miss Burley Bowman and Mr. Paul T. Morris. Pineville was represented by Mrs. Katherine Millard and Elbert Long by Mrs. C. C. Woolsey. The four visitors from Bonny Oaks were Mrs. Marshall Clark, Mrs. Elizabeth Stowe, Mr. M. M. Adamson and Mr. Arnold Campbell.

