

Heart, Aids 200 German Orphans; Voluntary Gesture of Friendship

TOYS DISTRIBUTED—The happiest moment for the orphans at Karlsruhe came as toys were distributed by their GI friends. Pfc. Camp, in the background, and Col. Pooley in the foreground, pose with several of the children, all unaware that their pictures were being made.

AT HIS POST—Pfc. Charles W. Camp, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Camp, 2312 Wilder St., poses at a file cabinet in the quarters of his outfit, the Historical Division, at Karlsruhe, Germany.
