

SCENES AS TRUSTEES VISIT BONNY OAKS SCHOOL

Bonny Oaks' elementary pupils are shown gathered on the lawn to practice Maypole winding—but what they're thinking about is the opening baseball game tomorrow with the Jersey-King's Point School team when Bonny Oaks will have new uniforms. The principal is Arnold Campbell, the teachers Mrs. Marshall Clark and Mrs. Sarah Shaw.
